Councillor Saywell reported on the youth services from the Methodist Hall in Torrington where he had received some funded training and was now a volunteer and the advice available from DY Space which was helpful. He referred to the commissioning of out-reach services for rural areas.

(c) Councillor Saywell reported on community wellbeing event at the Plough, Torrington and the progress of the health services at the wellbeing hub. He also referred to local Network events on 13 March (Umberleigh) and 26 July (Merton) and 1 November (Filleigh Village Hall) with a focus on economic growth working with District Council.

Agenda Item 2
