This paper provides the Audit Committee with a report on progress in delivering our responsibilities as your external auditors.

The paper also includes:

- a summary of emerging national issues and developments that may be relevant to you as a County Council; and
- includes a number of challenge questions in respect of these emerging issues which the Committee may wish to consider (these are a tool to use, if helpful, rather than formal questions requiring responses for audit purposes).

Members of the Audit Committee can find further useful material on our website, where we have a section dedicated to our work in the public sector. Here you can download copies of our publications. # Progress at 7 May 2019

Financial Statements Audit

Our audit plan for the year ended 31 March 2019 was presented to the Council's Audit Committee on 27 February 2019.

We commenced our interim audit in March 2019 although due to resourcing issues this did not cover as much as we had originally expected. We have:

- Updated our review of the Council's control environment
- Updated our understanding of the financial systems and business processes
- Reviewed of Internal Audit reports on core financial systems

We are working with the Council to agree a timetable for the remainder of the 2018/19 audit.

We expect that the final accounts audit will begin in June with findings reported to you in the Audit Findings Report at the Audit Committee meeting on 29 July 2019.

Value for Money

The scope of our work is set out in the guidance issued by the National Audit Office. The Code requires auditors to satisfy themselves that; "the Council has made proper arrangements for securing economy, efficiency and effectiveness in its use of resources".

The guidance confirmed the overall criterion as: "in all significant respects, the audited body had proper arrangements to ensure it took properly informed decisions and deployed resources to achieve planned and sustainable outcomes for taxpayers and local people".

The three sub criteria for assessment to be able to give a conclusion overall are:

- Informed decision making
- Sustainable resource deployment
- Working with partners and other third parties

Details of our initial risk assessment to determine our approach are included in our Audit Plan, which is included as a separate agenda item.

We will report our work in the Audit Findings Report to you at the Audit Committee meeting on 29 July 2019.

Other areas

Meetings

We met with the Council's Chief Executive and County Treasurer in May as part of our quarterly liaison meetings and continue to be in discussions with finance staff regarding emerging developments and to ensure the audit process is smooth and effective.

Objection

We have completed our consideration of the objection made by a member of the public regarding the 2017/18 accounts and our response is currently with Public Sector Audit Appointments. We will provide a verbal update to the Audit Committee.

National Audit Office – Pressures on children’s social care

The Local authorities in England have statutory responsibility for protecting the welfare of children and delivering children’s social care. In extreme cases they may use their statutory powers to place children in need on protection plans or even take them into care. Local authorities are also responsible for delivering non-statutory services for all children and young people, such as children’s centres. The Department for Education (the Department) provides statutory guidance on delivering these functions. It also has overall policy responsibility for children’s services, and has the strategic vision that all vulnerable children, no matter where they live, should have access to high-quality support by 2022.

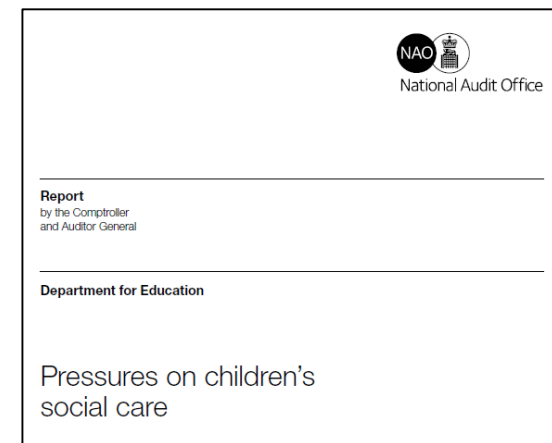

The report sets out recent trends in pressures on children’s social care demand and activity and the response of both national and local government to these pressures. It also sets out analysis the NAO conducted about what is causing variations in children’s social care demand and activity between different local authorities. The report covers:

- the pressures on children’s social care;
- the response of national and local government to increasing demand for children’s social care; and
- NAO analysis of what is causing variations in demand for children’s social care between local authorities.

The report notes that, while the Department has put in place a programme of reform, it still does not fully understand what is driving demand for children’s social care or why there is such wide variation between local authorities in their children’s social care activity and costs. It has not yet done the work to tie together available sources of information and therefore lacks a well-informed pathway to achieve its goal. While the Department has recognised the need for this analysis, it will not complete the work until summer 2019. Even if its analysis is completed successfully it will be a tall order for the Department to achieve its goal within three years.

The report is available on the NAO website:

NAO Report

Challenge question:

Has the Council considered the NAO report and how any local variations in demands can be addressed?

CIPFA – Social Care risk tool

The Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA) and the Association of Directors of Adult Social Services' (ADASS) have updated the Social Care Risk Tool; an advisory risk assessment tool for discretionary use by councils with adult social care responsibility.

The tool's objective is to help authorities assess whether unsustainable financial pressures might be faced by the adult social services department. It seeks to do this by assessing the extent to which various risk factors apply. This is the third version of the risk tool and it has been expanded to include new risks that have emerged since the previous version. In addition, a number of risks have been revised to make them clearer.

The risk assessment adopts a survey format and covers the following areas:

- savings;
- local pressures; and
- culture and relationships.

Each of the areas above includes a series of questions (or indicators), and authorities are required to assess whether the indicators are strongly present (score of 5); only present to some extent (scores 2 to 4); or not at all (score of 1). The total score helps to give an indication of where the authority lies. The maximum score is 195 (there are 39 questions altogether) which represents the highest risk possible. Some of the metrics (particularly those relating to unit costs) are more illustrative than prescriptive and local authorities may wish to adjust these to reflect their local circumstances.

CIPFA Social Care risk tool

Challenge question:

Has the Council completed the Social Care risk tool? Have your Directors shared the results and responses with Members?
